

Alice Biagini

Business Development and Marketing Manager

abiagini@tarterkrinsky.com

+1 212 216 8064

Alice Biagini is the Business Development and Marketing Manager at Tarter Krinsky & Drogin, responsible for driving growth of the Firm's Italy Practice and managing marketing and business development initiatives of other practices firm wide.

Alice helps implement the Italy Practice's growth plan while fostering meaningful, long-term relationships across markets and leveraging her knowledge of the American and Italian business cultures.

Prior to joining Tarter Krinsky & Drogin, Alice served as the Deputy Executive Director of the Asian American Bar Association of New York where she was responsible for event management, recruitment, and targeted marketing promotions. Earlier in her career, Alice spent over a decade serving in leadership roles at the Italy-America Chamber of Commerce, Inc., and in 2017, was appointed Deputy Executive Director.

Education

- Bocconi University, International Economics and Management (B.S.)
- Boston University, Online Professional Fundraising Program (Certificate)

Languages

- Italian

Related Services

- International
- Italy