Anastasia Austin is a Paralegal in the Firm's Landlord & Tenant Practice.

Anastasia supports attorneys in all aspects of landlord-tenant litigation, including preparing pleadings, motions, warrant requests, demand letters, and other related documents. She prepares and files legal documents in state and housing courts and before administrative agencies, and assists with hearings, trials, and settlement negotiations. Anastasia also reviews and analyzes lease agreements, notices, and other real estate-related documents. She manages case files, maintains accurate records, and monitors deadlines to help ensure compliance with court schedules and procedural requirements.
