

Dacia Hernandez

Paralegal

dhernandez@tarterkrinsky.com

+1 212 574 0313

Dacia Hernandez is a paralegal in the firm's Intellectual Property Practice. Dacia brings over 20 years of comprehensive intellectual property experience focusing primarily on assisting clients with both U.S. and international patent filing and prosecution. Before working in a law firm environment, Dacia served as Intellectual Property Manager at an aerospace company where she collaborated with outside counsel on matters involving patents, trademarks, and licensing. Dacia's in-house experience provides valuable insight into clients' perspectives, allowing her to anticipate client needs and deliver tailored, strategic support.

Education

- University of St. Andrews, Scotland, United Kingdom (M.A. Hons.)
 - Medieval History
- University of Washington (Certificate in Paralegal Studies)
- University of Washington (Certificate in Intellectual Property Management)

Community Involvement

Volunteer at iMentor NYC, helping students develop the skills they need to be prepared for and succeed in college.

Related Services

- Intellectual Property