

David H. Wander

Partner

dwander@tarterkrinsky.com

+1 212 216 8081

David H. Wander is a partner in the Firm's Bankruptcy and Corporate Restructuring Practice with over 35 years of experience in bankruptcy law, corporate restructuring, asset protection, and all types of matters involving financial distress on both the corporate and individual level.

David represents all types of stakeholders in matters involving financial distress, including debtors-in-possession, secured lenders, committees, and equity holders; all types of unsecured and administrative creditors including foreign vendors and equipment lessors; landlords both commercial and residential; officers, directors, & employees; and buyers of distressed debt. David handles all types of bankruptcy litigation.

David's practice includes commercial litigation in both federal and state courts in New York, prosecuting or defending a wide variety of business disputes.

David also advises business owners and investors in all types of corporate and transactional matters. His deep understanding of the legal landscape and his commitment to providing personalized counsel have earned him a reputation as a go-to resource for clients facing complex financial challenges. David is often quoted in bankruptcy-related articles appearing in The New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, New York Post, Law360, The Associated Press, and Retail Dive.

Education

- Tufts University (B.A.)
- Brooklyn Law School (J.D.)

Related Services

- Bankruptcy & Corporate Restructuring