Law Clerk

fbovenzi@tarterkrinsky.com

Federico Bovenzi is a member of the firm's Italy Practice. Fluent in Italian and English, he brings a strong international background, with legal education and professional experience spanning Italy, France, the United Kingdom, and the United States. His understanding of cross-border legal and business environments enables him to assist Italian companies, investors, and entrepreneurs in navigating complex U.S. and international business matters.

Federico's practice focuses on corporate and commercial matters, with particular experience in mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, joint ventures, and commercial agreements. Prior to joining the firm, he worked in the M&A and Private Equity department of a leading Italian law firm, advising private equity sponsors, industrial groups, and companies on domestic and cross-border transactions. He also contributes to the firm's thought leadership on international business and cross-border legal developments.
