

Nermana Sujkovic-Blambic

Paralegal

nblambic@tarterkrinsky.com

+1 212 308 9175

Nermana Sujkovic-Blambic is a Paralegal in the Firm's Landlord & Tenant Practice. She provides litigation support to attorneys in all phases of landlord-tenant matters and New York City Housing-Court proceedings, regularly working with property owners and management companies. Nermana assists with preparation and filing of legal documents, motion practice, case management, and coordination of court filings.

Nermana experience includes:

Preparing and filing pleadings and motions in New York Housing Court

Assisting with non-payment and holdover proceedings

Managing case files and litigation calendars

Drafting legal correspondence and notices

Coordinating court filings and service legal papers

Communicating with clients, property managers, and court staff

Education

- Fort Hamilton High School, Brooklyn (New York Diploma, 2003)

Beyond The Law

Outside of work, Nermana enjoys spending quality time with her family, traveling, and exploring New York City's many neighborhoods, parks, and cultural experiences.

Related Services

- Landlord & Tenant